

CLAIMS

1 - Photographic paper for printers, characterized by the fact of being produced a laminate constituted of photographic paper (5) with a liner (6) formed by low weight paper (7) and a low adherence adhesive (8), where is produced in one equipment partial cuts (2) for detachment of photographs and total cuts that produce edges (1) for detachments of the laminate sheets, being the photograph margins (4) detached from the sheet after printing in a determined field (3).

2 - Photographic paper for printers in accordance with claim 1, characterized by the fact of partial cuts (2) being made in accordance and with the size determined for the photograph.

3 - Photographic paper for printers in accordance with claim 1, characterized by containing the sheet detached from the laminate for as much photographic fields (9) as can be included therein, depending on the size of the determined field.

4 - Photographic paper for printers in accordance with claim 1, characterized by the fact of these cuts being partial uninterrupted and reach only the photographic paper (5), without reaching the liner (6).

FOUO "DEZ 2014"